Mineral, Gem Show Underway

People were waiting in line when doors opened at 10 Friday for the Lincoln Gem and Mineral Club 14th annual show being held at the State Fairgrounds exposition hall.

About 150 displays separated into competitive and non-competitive exhibits will be seen by several thousand persons before the show closes Sunday at 6 p.m.

Among the exhibits are Friday Plume agates from Oregon, Kuan Yin Carvings of Chinese gods from Illinois, Indian Petroglyphs—rubblings of stone carvings — from Sioux City, Iowa, fossilized fish and dozens of other spectacular arrangements.

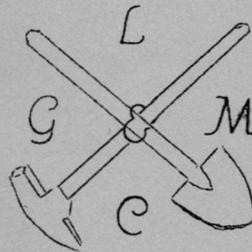

Competitive entries will be judged Saturday.

Roger Pabian is show chairman. Margie Wells is club president.
