THINGS TO DO

Weekend

■ Earth's treasures

The Lincoln Gem and Mineral Club's annual show will glisten inside Pershing Auditorium, 15th and N streets, from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Saturday and 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday.

■ Science and scouts

Morrill Hall at 14th and U streets is the site of "SOS: Seek Out Science," a celebration of Nebraska women in science, from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. Sunday with hands-on demonstrations and presentations. The annual Scout-O-Rama at East Park Plaza on Saturday features Pinewood Derby races, a petting zoo, model camp sites and camping displays.

■ All that jazz

Jazz artist Karrin Allyson will perform at 9 p.m. Saturday at the Zoo Bar, 136 N. 14th St.

■ Regional finals

NCAA basketball competition at 2:30 p.m. Saturday and 1:30 p.m. Sunday — telecast on CBS (channels 3 and 10/11) — will narrow competition to the Final Four.

■ At the movies

"Only You" with Robert Downey Jr. arrives at local video stores this week, while Australian movie "Muriel's Wedding" comes to the Cinema and "A Tall Tale" with Patrick Swayze plays at the Plaza.

■ The big bad wolf

The Magic Circle Mime Company presents "Peter and the Wolf" at 3 p.m. Sunday at Lied Center for Performing Arts, 12th and R streets.

■ Big Apple blast

The Northeast High School Concert Choir raises money to attend a concert in New York City next month with a huge sale from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, featuring a multi-family garage sale, silent auction, bake sale, quilt raffle and concessions, all at the Northeast parking lot (indoors in bad weather), 2635 N. 73rd St.

MONDAY

THE WEEK AHEAD

■ Water festival

The Capital Groundwater Festival will be held Tuesday at the state Capitol and will feature educational activities and presentations about conserving water. Gov. Ben Nelson will moderate elementary students and government officials in a game of "Dripial Pursuit" at 11:30 a.m.

■ Open forum

The Conciliation Process Group will meet at 4 p.m. Tuesday at the Lincoln Public Schools District Office, 5901 O St. No formal presentations have been planned, allowing citizens to express concerns openly and to facilitate discussion.

■ Hotcakes

The Sertoma Pancake Festival will be held from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Thursday at Pershing Auditorium, 226 Centennial Mall South. Tickets for the pancake jamboree are $3 and may be purchased at the door or from Sertoma members.

■ Women's health

A symposium on women's health, "Women's Health: Who Cares?" will be presented Friday by Dr. Carroll L. Estes of the University of California-San Francisco.

Registration for the symposium at First United Methodist Church, 50th and St. Paul streets, begins at 8 a.m. Cost is $25.

■ Kindergarten roundup

Children planning to attend kindergarten this fall may enroll at all elementary schools Thursday and Friday. Parents should attend registration at the appropriate school; the child need not be present.

■ Playground

A new multi-activity indoor playground is scheduled to open at noon Friday in the Ager Building next to Folsom Children's Zoo, 1222 S. 27th St. The building will include a one-piece multi-activity structure, a sand play area and a road network. Admission is 50 cents.

■ Earth's treasures

Demonstrations, jewelry and fossil exhibits will be the fare at the 37th Annual Lincoln Gem and Mineral Club Show at Pershing Auditorium, 226 Centennial Mall South. Admission to the shows, 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Saturday and 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday, is $3 for adults. Children under 12 are admitted free with an adult.
