

ROCKHOUND OF THE YEAR AWARD

PURPOSE: To stimulate interest in the Lincoln Gem & Mineral Club and the Lapidary Arts.

ELIGIBILITY: Any member of the Lincoln Gem & Mineral Club (There will be one award for Adult member and one award for Junior member)

DURATION: January 10, 1979 thru January 10, 1980.

JUDGES:

RULES:

- 1 point Attending Lincoln Gem & Mineral Club meetings.
(one point for each meeting)
- 5 points Giving slide presentation or demonstration at meetings.
(sorry, program chairman can't count regular meetings)
- 1 to 5 points Bringing Rocks (or related material) to display at monthly meetings (one point per month)
- 5 points Displaying material at any Rock Show, Arts & Crafts Show or Fair. (material must pertain to hobby---5 points per show---5 point bonus for Regional Federation Show or 10 point bonus for National Show)
- 2 points Bringing item for Silent Auction.
- 1 point Checking books out of Club Library. (one point per month)
- 5 points Attending field trips sponsored by any Rock Club.
(5 points per trip)
- 5 points Submitting article to Pick & Shovel (the Editor will attempt to publish as many as possible---sorry, regular reports and normal Editor's news doesn't count-- 5 points per month.)
- 5 points Bringing visitor to monthly meetings. (maximum of 2 meetings for any one guest to count. Families count as one visitor--bonus of 5 points if the visitor joins the club)
- 5 points Attending another Rock Club meeting. (maximum of 5 points for each club during the year)
- 5 points Enrolling in any class pertaining to our hobby. (must be Earth Science related)
- 5 points Giving Educational talk on some subject in the Earth
Sciences to an outside group, (schools, Scouts, etc.)